

An insect on a flower.

Any type of fungi.

Something that shouldn't be left in nature.

(This is the only stuff on this scavenger hunt that you should pick up. Be sure to take a trash bag with you!)

Something that belongs to a bird.

An animal mistakenly called an insect.

A dead tree that's still standing, and might be a bird's home.

A seed from a tree.

A footprint in the mud that's not human.

Poison ivy.

Don't touch it!
